

Boschhoek Update October 2012 (2)

Sunrise on Boschhoek, and the bush is bursting at the seams with green!

Macrobert has already been in contact with all our new owners to do the necessary in respect of the transfer of their stands. If anyone has been overlooked, or if there are any queries, kindly contact our Boschhoek conveyancer Jessica Jansen van Rensburg jessica.jvensburg@macrobert.co.za

Allow me this opportunity to also extend a heartfelt welcome to Marius, Nico, Dolf and Sheelagh who since decided to make Boschhoek part of their lives. Your names have been added to the invitation list for our celebration when we release Boschhoek's giraffes!

For those who have not yet had the chance to visit Boschhoek, there are currently still some viewing slots available this weekend. Let out field guide Jandre take you exploring for approximately three hours. He takes only one family at a time, so you will be free to go where you please. Consider combining it with an exquisite light lunch at the adjacent Leeuwenhof Lodge and Spa; at only one and a half hours from Pretoria and two hours from Johannesburg, this makes for a lovely day outing! Kindly call in advance to arrange.

On the bush lodge front, our control architect Gerd Bolt bolt@mweb.co.za forwarded these pictures of the stunning Cape Nature Oudebosch Cabins in the Kogelberg Nature Reserve.

"When we say cabins, we really mean gorgeous glass-fronted, light wood, airy dwellings you'd have a hard time leaving once you set foot inside. Each comes complete with a roof garden [or sod roof], and all were constructed using locally sourced stone and timber to blend in perfectly with the pristine surrounds." (<http://www.gotravel24.com/galleries/adventure/oudebosch-kogelberg-biosphere-reserve/>)

"The units were constructed with renewable materials with care taken to have as little impact on the surrounds as possible. Interesting features of each cabin are the planted roofs that act as insulation and keep the accommodation cool in summer, and for winter days, there's an indoor fireplace. Each cabin sleeps four guests in two bedrooms with large sliding doors, a double bed or two single beds" (<http://blog.getaway.co.za/environment/oudebosch-cabins-kogelberg-nature-reserve/>)

On the marketing front, note the proud addition of the words "Phase 1 Full Title Bush Stands Now Transferring!!" to the full page ad in today's Beeld, Friday 19 October. We would like to thank you all for bringing Boschhoek to this point!
